Fino

50ml | Bottle 375ml

If wine is the drink of noblemen then fino is the drink of the gods! Don't disregard fino or sherry as Nan's tippie at Christmas, it truly is a fine treat and wonderful compliment to food. Be adventurous and try a glass or bottle with your meal, from the bone dry to the exceptionally sweet go on it's a treat!

Apostoles Palo Cortado PX / 20% £11.00 | £75.00

To produce this wine, palomino grapes & PX grapes are pressed, fermented separately & both then spend 12 years in separate soleras before being blended. At this point they enjoy a further 18 years together harmoniously in the Apostoles solera. Although appearing sweet on the nose, this sherry is medium dry on the palate with flavors of fig & raisin balanced with caramel, vanilla & walnut.

Matusalem Oloroso/ PX / 20.5% £11.00 | £75.00

The Oloroso & PX spend 15 years in their own soleras before being blended together to spend a further 15 years in the Matusalem solera. This is a beautifully sweet Oloroso with profound flavors of dried fruit & spices. Perfect with cheese or a dessert.

Noe PX / 15.5% £11.00 | £75.00

This wine is 100% Pedro Ximinez. The grapes are harvested & left to bake in the sun for up to 4 weeks before pressing, which yields small quantities of very concentrated, sweet brown nectar. The wine spends 30 years in the Noe solera before bottling. At 450 grams per litre of residual sugar, it is one of the sweetest wines in the world! A dessert in its own right!

Sherry

Manzanilla / 15% 50ml £5.00

A pale straw colour, clean intense aromas of fruit and cut grass. The taste is dry yet soft encompassing classic salty notes on the palate with refreshing bitterness on the finish.

Oloroso / 17.5% 50ml £5.00

Deep and rich with lively aromas of orange peel, almonds and hazelnuts. The palate is dry and powerful rather than sweet with a vibrant and crisp finish
